BAND STORY

"DIRT is a four-piece band from the rock and roll city of Cleveland, Ohio composed of DaveDBC Burzanko on lead vocals and turntables, Jim Bryant on guitars, Justin Pocock on bass, and Mark Patrick on drums. The group blends many influences and musical styles such as rap, hard rock, metal, punk, industrial, techno, funk, hip-hop, and spoken word. Dirt started in 1996 by Burzanko as a studio project. In 1999 Patrick left a pop rock band to put his efforts into the project. The quartet was complete after recruiting Jim from a local recording studio and Justin from the music scene of their hometown. Dirts heavily rhythmic sound and DBCs compelling lyrics and vocal style make for a look into the future of rock underlined by the past. Dirts self-released Enhanced CD Welcome To The Pressure Cooker is selling steadily all across the globe from Japan to Australia, Europe and the US. Dirt music has been featured on Fox Sports Net, MTV, Swept Away TV, ASA Events and many extreme sports DVDs in the US and Europe including The Starboyz, Street Racers, The European Paintball Championships, Derder Video Productions and Redbull. Dirt has also been gaining commercial radio success in many markets worldwide. Dirt is sponsored by Dean Markley Strings and powered by Sam Ash Music."
