Born and raised in Detroit, MI she has always been involved in singing, dancing, songwriting and entertaining. Starting voice lessons at age 5 and piano theory at age 10 these things have always been her passion. Her beautiful and powerful voice parallels her talented songwriting abilities. success. The Star Spangled Banner is a very common song for Justine Blazer. She has performed the National Anthem for countless sporting events including the Colts/Packers NFL game in Indianapolis, IN, the Pacers/Pistons NBA game in Detroit, MI, the Celtics/Pacers game in Boston, MA, the NHRA Fall nationals in Chicago, IL, the Nets/Grizzlies NBA game in New Jersey, the Detroit Tigers and just sang for DC Nationals (MLB) for 30,000 people. These games were aired on major stations such as ESPN, ESPN 2, FOX and ABC. She has starred in many commercials, radio jingles and media. Justine Blazer starred in a Jimmy Kimmel Live! commercial filmed in Hollywood, CA. Justine then headed back east to sing at the infamous Madison Square Garden for the New York Film and Music Festival. Justine's rock/pop genre is very unique because its mixed in with a little bit of soul fullness. Some of Justine's major influences are Joss Stone, Anastacia, Gwen Stefani and Kelly Clarkson. Id like to describe my music as it has an eclectic sound to it. Its not quite straight up rock or straight up pop but its somewhere in between fused in with a nostalgic sound of the 80s making it very fresh and unique. Every song on my album has a little bit of a different feel to it but overall it is the true expression of who I am as an artist. Justines music has been put in the hands of record labels like Geffen, Columbia Records, Hollywood, Motown, Maverick, DreamWorks and Interscope. Whatever she pursues, she puts her whole heart and soul into it. I just live one day at a time do what my heart tells me. Music is my passion and all I can be is me!"
