

QPEE

BAND STORY

"QPEE Wuts Krackin Entertainment Inc. QPEE wants to be known as a professional artist. Using his natural talents and real-life experiences, he sets a new standard for true versatility and creative lyrics. Sounding like no one other than himself, QPEE is guaranteed to bring something different to the music industry. When QPEE is not in the studio recording, you can find him in the streets or in the clubs promoting his music. Growing up in Columbus, Georgia, QPEE was introduced to rapping at the age of thirteen. Over time, he developed many different delivery styles that made him stand out from the many rappers trying to make it in the music industry. Recording whenever he could and selling cds out the trunk of his car, word on the street grew quickly that QPEE was the hottest up and coming artist. In January 2005, QPEE released his first solo project entitled The Best Kept Secret. He sold over 2000 copies in the first week on the streets. QPEE then began marketing his music over the Internet (www.soundclick.com, www.myspace.com, www.americanidolunderground.com, www.rapstation.com, etc.) to increase his fan base worldwide. QPEE has opened up for national recording artists such as TI, Bonecrusher, Pastor Troy, Lil John and The Eastside Boys, Nappy Roots, Bohagon, Young Bloodz, Ying Yang Twins, Baby D, Chingy, and Sammy Sam. With over 40,000 promo copies in the street and more than 15,000 song plays on the internet QPEEs new single Kenfolk featuring Pastor Troy is already creating a buzz in the streets and over the internet. As of May 14, 2006, Kenfolk is currently #55 in the TOP 100 URBAN SINGLES in the United States
